

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF MUSIC

DOCTOR OF MUSIC IN COMPOSITION

Degree will appear on final transcript and diploma as:

Program: Music Composition

Major: Music Composition

This degree is offered to candidates who have achieved distinction in the analysis of music and who demonstrate ability to do research and scholarly study.

I. Credit Requirements

The Doctor of Music degree requires a minimum of 94 semester credits beyond the bachelor's degree. Thirty (30) credits from the master's degree count toward the 94, and the remaining 64 credits are completed at FSU (40 credits of coursework plus 24 credits of recitals and treatise). Note: If the student received their Master's Degree from the College of Music, all graduate-level credits (except for remedial Music History and Music Theory) count toward the Doctorate.

II. Diagnostic Examination

The area may (or may not) require this examination. Please consult with the Area Coordinator for more information.

III. Residence Requirements

A minimum of twenty four (24) graduate credits must be earned during any consecutive 12-month period.

IV. Language Requirements

Languages and other proficiencies will be determined by the major professor in consultation with the student.

V. Competency Examinations

Offered each semester on keyboard harmony, harmonization, and music literature that graduate theory and composition students must complete in order to graduate.

TOTAL CREDITS BEYOND BACHELOR'S DEGREE94

NOTE: MUH 5219 and MUT 5051 are remedial (or review) courses, and they do not fulfill degree requirements under any circumstances. There are no exceptions to this policy.

These courses address past curricular deficiencies and/or comprehension levels of core curricular content, as determined by proficiency examinations. Successful completion of these remedial (review) courses prepares students for graduate-level content courses in the disciplines of Music History and Music Theory.

Additional remediated coursework, in other curricular areas, may be required of a student as well-as determined by Area faculty.
