FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF MUSIC
DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN MUSICOLOGY
Degree will appear on final transcript and diploma as:
Program: Musicology
Major: Musicology

This degree is offered to candidates who demonstrate superior musicianship and scholarship. Specialization of interests in Historical Musicology or Ethnomusicology may be pursued within the major.

I. Credit Requirements

The Doctor of Philosophy degree requires a minimum of 94 semester credits beyond the bachelor’s degree. Thirty (30) credits from the master’s degree count toward the 94, and the remaining 64 credits are completed at FSU (40 credits of coursework plus 24 credits of Dissertation). Note: If the student received the Master’s Degree from the College of Music, all graduate-level credits (except remedial History and Theory) count toward the Doctorate.

II. Diagnostic Examination

The area may (or may not) require this examination. Please consult with the Area Coordinator for more information.

III. College of Music, Residence / Scholarly Engagement Requirement

NOTE: The following Scholarly Engagement Requirement for all doctoral students goes into effect Fall, 2016. Returning doctoral students who have not yet completed the current 24/12 Residency Requirement may elect this new Scholarly Engagement Requirement instead:

Please consult the current Florida State University Graduate Bulletin for an overview of the Scholarly Engagement requirement for all doctoral students in the university. To meet the Scholarly Engagement requirement, College of Music doctoral students must 1) complete 24 graduate (5000-level or above) credit hours within any consecutive 12-month period; or 2) complete a minimum of eighteen (18) graduate credit hours in any consecutive 12-month period and submit to their Area Coordinator and/or faculty advisor evidence of additional Scholarly Engagement activities equivalent to 6 credit hours prior to completion of the degree. These activities may include enrolling in courses (additional credit hours); attending or presenting/performing in seminars, masterclasses, workshops, symposia, conferences and festivals; engaging in creative activities, research and collaborative study beyond the university campus; utilizing the library, laboratories and other facilities provided by the University; and other scholarly or creative activities as determined by area faculty and approved by the area coordinator and by the Director of Graduate Studies for the College of Music.

In sum, doctoral students in the College of Music must complete 24 Scholarly Engagement “points”, with each credit hour counting as one point and points for other activities determined by each area and degree program. Please consult the Program of Studies and your major professor for information on Scholarly Engagement activities recommended in your degree program.
IV. Language Requirements

Demonstrated reading proficiency in German and French, or other languages pertaining to your area of specialization is a requirement for the PhD in Musicology.

V. Required Coursework (30 credits from MM; 64 credits from FSU)

A. Major Area 54

Students must also enroll for the following:

Preliminary Exam (0 cr.)
The Doctoral Preliminary Examination consists of written and oral sections and is taken when the student has completed all course work or in the final semester of coursework. It is the responsibility of the student's major professor to determine when a student must take the examination. The student must be registered for MUS 8964 (0 credit) during the semester in which the examination is taken.

Dissertation Defense (0 cr.)
The student must be registered for MUS 8985 (0 credit) during the semester in which the defense is conducted.

TOTAL CREDITS BEYOND BACHELOR'S DEGREE 94

NOTE: MUH 5219 and MUT 5051 are remedial (or review) courses, and they do not fulfill degree requirements under any circumstances. There are no exceptions to this policy.

These courses address past curricular deficiencies and/or comprehension levels of core curricular content, as determined by proficiency examinations. Successful completion of these remedial (review) courses prepares students for graduate-level content courses in the disciplines of Music History and Music Theory.

Additional remediated coursework may be required of a student, as determined by Area faculty.
